ANNOUNCEMENTS

✘ Dealing with Difficult Behavior

We will explore the questions: how can we respond from our core values when we feel challenged, and how can we nourish our own spirits when we feel under attack. The class will explore active and reflective listening, assertiveness versus aggressiveness, and communicating effectively with people with different learning styles and emotions. This seminar will be held on Monday evenings February 5, 12, 26, and March 5, at 6:00 p.m. at the Parish House. If you have any questions or would like to reserve a space, contact Rali Weaver.

✘ Friday Children's Playgroup at the Parish House

If you have a baby or toddler, consider coming to the Parish House on Fridays from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. for a Children's Playgroup. Everyone is welcome: parents, grandparents, caregivers, and children under the age of 4. For information contact Tania Allen (617/822-1119).

✘ SOUND THE TRUMPET!

Don't miss this afternoon's exciting concert by rising trumpet star Ashley Hall and Heinrich Christensen. The program spans more than three centuries and shows off Ms. Hall's abilities in works by Martini and Krebs as well as Petr Eben's "Okna" (Windows), considered one of the 20th century's most important works for trumpet and organ; Daniel Pinkham's "Psalms"; and Jon Laukvik's "Lamento" for trumpet and organ (2006) in its American premiere. 5 p.m.; doors open at 4:30. $12/$8 at the door. Parishioners and their friends who attend are cordially invited to an informal reception at the Parish House following the concert.
