THE ORDER FOR MORNING PRAYER

as found in the Book of Common Prayer, beginning on page 1.

SUNDAY, MARCH 15, 2020

We beseech thee, O Lord, in thy forgiving love, turn away what we deserve for our sins, nor let our offenses prevail before thee; but let thy mercy always rise up to overcome them, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

_Prayerno eok, p. 194_

PRELUDE

Wandelt in der Liebe
Georg Philipp Telemann (1681-1767)

_Walk in the same love with which Christ loved us!_
Let its flames burn brightly

_Love each other with affection yet keep it pure!_
_Sanctify your feelings_
_So they don’t work to condemn you!_

_Refuse out of hand these flattering desires!_
_That tempt you at first, but be fearful of the end!_
_Happy are they that flee them early._

_Look how Zeboim smoulders_
_When the Almighty’s reproach fumes_

_He who judges the fruits of your malice according to the earthly penalty_ _burn down into the abyss._

HYMN

Come Thou Font of Every Blessing

1. Come, thou fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing thy grace!
2. Here I find my greatest treasure; hither, by thy help, I've come;
3. Oh, to grace how great a debt or daily I'm constrained to be!

Streams of mercy never cease, call for songs of loudest praise.
Streams of mercy never cease, safely to arrive at home.
Streams of mercy never cease, bind my wandering heart to thee:

Teach me some melodious sonnet, sung by Jesus sought me when a stranger wandering prone to wander, Lord, I feel it, prone to flaming tongues above.

Praise the mount! Oh, fix me from the fold of God; he, to rescue me from leave the God I love; here's my heart, oh, take and on it, mount of God's unchanging love.

Danger, interposed his precious blood.
Seal it, seal it for thy courts above.

Words: Robert Robinson (1735-1790), alt.
Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813

GENERAL CONFESSION

Prayerbook, p. 4

All shall sit.

Almighty and most merciful Father, we have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us. Spare thou those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore thou those who are penitent, according to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life; to the glory of thy holy name. Amen.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

HYMN

There is a Balm in Gilead

---

1. Sometimes I feel discouraged, and think my work's in vain,
2. Don't ever feel discouraged, for Jesus is your friend,
3. If you cannot preach like Peter, if you cannot pray like Paul,

But then the Holy Spirit revives my soul again,
who, if you ask for knowledge, will never fail to lend.
you can tell the love of Jesus, who died to save us all.

This is one of the most moving of the African-American spirituals because it illustrates the way in which the enslaved tried to encourage those who were feeling especially weighed down by the burden of their captivity.

GENERAL THANKSGIVING

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we thine unworthy servants do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and lovingkindness to us and to all people. We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we may show forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up ourselves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days, through Jesus Christ our Lord; in whose name we ascribe unto thee all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

FROM THE CHURCH LEADERSHIP

In light of the growing threat of the coronavirus pandemic and the general advice to limit social contact, the leaders of King’s Chapel have initiated the following actions. These will be effective immediately and remain in effect through the end of the month. They will be reviewed based on new information. We take these actions as good citizens and in furtherance of the Christian injunction to do unto others as you would have them do unto you.

· Non-worship events including those at the Parish House will be cancelled.
· Staff will mostly work from home.
· The Freedom Trail guide program now operating only Friday through Monday will be cancelled.
· The Wednesday evening communion service has been cancelled.
· For the moment Sunday morning worship services at the church and the Little Chapel will continue. We will provide appropriate cleanings, hand sanitizers and advice to sit reasonably away from one another. Anyone with coughing, colds, sneezing or any compromised health condition will be advised not to attend out of respect for others.

Recognizing the hardships these steps may cause, in taking these actions we intend for staff to be compensated in the ordinary course at least through the end of this month. Choir members and history educators will be paid even though their work hours will be curtailed.

No one takes these steps lightly. Given the unknown spread of this infectious disease throughout the United States and its accelerating speed, matters are likely to get worse before they get better. For the sake of our members and staff, and those with whom they come into contact or give care to, we feel these are all warranted. We thank you for your continued support and patience as we all do our part.

FROM THE MINISTER
Dear Friends,

During this hard time with coronavirus spreading, we need one another. None of us needs to face this alone.

So, while we are taking measures to protect all church members and the staff, and limit our physical contact, please know that your David Waters and I, and Parish Administrator Gretchen Horton are all available to help in any way we can. Please do not hesitate to contact us by phone or by email (contact info below). The parish house will be closed until the end of the month, but any message you leave on the staff work phones are forwarded automatically to our email, so we receive them promptly. Senior Warden Miguel Gomez-Ibanez also is available by phone if you need to talk with him.

I close with this post written by my daughter Kathryn Fallon Bitner earlier today. Whether you need help or can give it, “we are all on this journey together.”

I wish someone would say this so I will.
I think a lot of people wish there was more they could do about COVID 19. I think that paralysis is why we are so afraid. So, my suggestion is to be kind. Americans are really incredibly kind in a crisis. It doesn't feel that way right now but we give huge amounts of money and resources after natural disasters, we do crazy heroic things during mass shootings, we donate blood and money and books and clothes. We adopt pets and buy medical debt. When the system fails Americans do their best to fill that gap. So, I want to brainstorm how we fill that gap now. Check in with friends and neighbors (online or on the phone) to see what they need. Collect money for people in the community out of work or making less because of this situation. Make a ton of soup and freeze it and give it to folks who get sick enough to be miserable but not sick enough to go to the hospital. (leave it on the doorstep, make those ring doorbells work). Give some of your toilet paper stash to your elderly neighbor or aunt. Pick up some slack at work for the coworker who has kids at home because schools are closed. Reach out to churches, temples, mosques, synagogues, local government and see what they are doing and what you can do to safely help. This is new. This is scary. But helping feels way better than buying a year’s worth of toilet paper. Find the helpers. And be one.

May God’s love and peace remain with you all,

Joy
